If you’ve taken an introductory 4-semester Danish language sequence or equivalent at another institution and would like to continue to study the Danish language this minor is for you. (Note: The U of M does not offer the introductory 4-semester Danish language sequence, which is required to pursue the Danish minor.)

During this minor you’ll further your studies of the Danish language by focusing on the spoken language, literature, culture, and civilization. You’ll also have the opportunity to take elective courses in a wide range of areas including literature, culture, contemporary and historical languages, film, history, and contemporary society.

The College of Liberal Arts Advantage
When you study Danish at the University of Minnesota, you gain the added advantage of a College of Liberal Arts education. At CLA, the liberal arts mean you get more than just a degree in one major or another; it means you will be exposed to different areas of study, to different ways of thinking and learning. In fact, the liberal arts teach you how to learn—how to ask the right questions, how to problem solve, and how to innovate. The liberal arts prepare students for the complexities of our world, because here at CLA you will study not just, say, politics or art but also where politics and art intersect, where science and ethics intersect, where economics and the environment intersect.
